4) It is important to come to the Orientation session shown above without your puppy. Orientation will include some people-only exercises. All 2-footed family members are welcome to attend.

5) Finally, please note the following:

- You must bring a copy of your dog's vaccination records for parvo, distemper, and rabies to the Orientation session for review by CTA. We do not keep the records.
 - For puppies under four months who have not yet been vaccinated for rabies, we ask you to bring in a copy of the veterinarian's record once the puppy is vaccinated.
 - To be eligible for certification in the AKC S.T.A.R. Puppy® Program you must attend at least six of the eight training classes and pass the test given at the last class. Please note that puppies who show aggression towards people or other puppies are not eligible for the S.T.A.R. program
 - Registration is provisional. If you CANNOT be accommodated in your chosen class, we will contact you and make alternate arrangements.
